

First Batch of 600 Yuchai-Powered Natural Gas Buses Order Delivered to Mexico

18/08/25

SINGAPORE, Aug. 18, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- China Yuchai International Limited (NYSE: CYD) ("China Yuchai" or the "Company"), one of the largest powertrain solution manufacturers through its main operating subsidiary in China, Guangxi Yuchai Machinery Company Limited ("Yuchai"), announced today that the first batch of buses powered by Yuchai's natural gas engines was recently delivered to Nuevo León, Mexico, providing a stable and reliable power source to public buses for upgrading the local public transportation system. This batch is the first shipment under the 600-unit natural gas bus order received in 2024.

Currently, 1,400 buses powered by Yuchai natural gas engines are in active service across Nuevo León, Mexico and the total number is projected to exceed 2,500 by the end of 2025.

Since its first entry into the Mexican market, Yuchai's natural gas bus engines have grown from a modest presence to a leading position in the Mexican natural gas bus engine market, becoming the supplier of choice for Mexican bus fleets. With strong aftersales service and a growing service network across Mexico, Yuchai is well recognized and supported by the market in Nuevo León—significantly adding value to the 'Yuchai' branding.

Mr. Weng Ming Hoh, President of China Yuchai, commented, "We are proud of being a reputable and reliable driving force in the ongoing development of Mexico's sustainable public transportation industry. Yuchai's increasing growth in overseas markets demonstrates our products' superior quality and performance. Our commitment to aftersales service with a growing service network, ensures the availability of technical and parts in keeping our engines running."
