SINGAPORE, April 30 /PRNewswire-Asia-FirstCall/ -- China Yuchai International Limited (NYSE: CYD) ("China Yuchai" or the "Company"), announced today that its subsidiary, Guangxi Yuchai Machinery Company Limited ("GYMCL"), has been awarded the status of a "High-Tech Enterprise" from the Chinese government. With this designation, GYMCL qualifies for a preferential national income tax rate of 15% through the year 2010 rather than the normal corporate income tax rate of 25%.

GYMCL met the qualifying criteria as a High-Tech Enterprise based on a series of tests and inspections. GYMCL's R&D and technical innovations have made it a leader in the development of environmentally friendly products. Among its successes have been the launch of the first self-developed National 4 and National 5 compliant diesel engines in China to reduce engine emissions. GYMCL has also a history of being the first to market with a number of new diesel engine innovations. For the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games, GYMCL was the only company producing National 4 compliant engines commercially resulting in the receipt of a large number of orders compared with other engine types.
